

Our Mission: To provide a nurturing environment for Gay and Lesbian Jews, inclusive of Bi-sexual, Transgender, and Heterosexuals in South Florida, "Jews of the Rainbow". We are dedicated to the spiritual, social, educational and emotional support that empowers and enhances the quality of members' lives and the community as a whole.

The Board of Directors welcomes any member who wishes to address the Board. You must call Sherry at least two days prior to the meeting so your name can be put on the Agenda. The next Board Meeting will be Tuesday, April 13th at 7:30pm - at the synagogue.

Bikkur Cholim: Our Bikkur Cholim committee wants to know when our members and friends are sick – either in the hospital or at home – so we can call or visit you. If you are not well, or if you know of a member or friend of Etz Chaim who is not well, please call Sherry at the office and let her know the details. Also, if a friend or relative passes away, please call the office and let us know.

Standing and Sitting: There are several points during our service when we stand and sit as a congregation. Understanding that repeated standing and sitting is difficult for some of our members and friends, we and our Jewish tradition encourage you to remain seated comfortably whenever necessary.

Please do not leave Bulletins in the Prayer Book

CEC Dress Code: Attire appropriate to the sanctity of our Services.
Please no shorts or tank tops

"Please, refrain from applauding during services."

Tzedakah: The Tzedakah for the month of March 2010 will benefit: The City of Curico, Chile. Chile has suffered great devastation due to earthquakes and tsunami's. The city of Curico sustained heavy damage and needs help. Since our own Carlos' family is there and in need, we have chosen this as our March Tzedakah.

Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat - We need you to sponsor an Oneg Shabbat at $100 or to donate to a synagogue sponsored Oneg Shabbat. Oneg Shabbats provide the socialization we all enjoy after Shabbat services so please help us continue this practice by selecting an OPEN date in the red folder in the Guest Book or by calling Sherry at 954-564-9232. FULL OR PARTIAL SPONSORSHIPS ARE WELCOME!

Nominating Committee
